

Point Breeze Credit Union breaks ground for a new office in Owings Mills, Md.

Point Breeze Credit Union breaks ground for a new office in Owings Mills, Md. The new office will be located at the corner of Reisterstown Road and Painters Mill Road in the Foundry Row shopping center. With the expanded location, expected to open in early 2017, Point Breeze Credit Union will adopt a new conversational, relationship-focused service approach for members. This new, innovative style of banking does away with the barriers of traditional teller lines, counters, and cash drawers, opting for an interactive member experience utilizing state-of-the-art in-branch technology.

Pictured (left to right):

Alan Davis, Principal, Baskervill; John Ford, President, R-PCI Construction; Kim Mangrum, Senior Vice President and Chief Member Services Officer, Point Breeze Credit Union; Michael J. Gallagher, Chairman, Point Breeze Credit Union; Tonia Niedzialkowski, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer/Information Technology, Point Breeze Credit Union; Councilwoman Vicki Almond, Baltimore County 2nd District; and Donna M. Sills, Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Greenberg Gibbons